When and Where to File and Pay

This return shall be filed within one (1) year from the decedent's death. In meritorious cases, the Commissioner shall have the authority to grant a reasonable extension not exceeding thirty (30) days for filing the return.

This return shall be filed with any Authorized Agent Bank (AAB) of the Revenue District Office (RDO) having jurisdiction over the place of domicile of the decedent at the time of his death. If the decedent has no legal residence in the Philippines, the return shall be filed with the Office of the Commissioner (Revenue District Office No. 39, South Quezon City).

In case of a non-resident decedent with executor or administrator in the Philippines, the return shall be filed with the AAB of the RDO where such executor/administrator is registered or if not yet registered, at the place of domicile.

- When the return is filed with an AAB, the taxpayer must accomplish and submit BIR-prescribed deposit slip, which the bank teller shall machine validate as evidence that payment was received by the AAB. The AAB receiving the tax return shall stamp mark the word “Received” on the return and also machine validate the return as proof of filing and return payment of the tax by the taxpayer, respectively. The machine validation shall reflect the date of payment, amount paid and transaction code, the name of the bank, branch code, teller’s code, date, and time of payment. Bank deposit receipt number and date should be indicated in the return for taxpayers paying under the bank debit system.

- Payments may also be made thru the e-payment channels of AABs thru either their online facility, credit card payment, cash, and mobile payment.

Where the taxes are assessed by reason of negligence, intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or fraud on the part of the taxpayer, no extension will be granted by the Commissioner.

When the Commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of the estate tax or any part thereof would impose undue hardship on the estate or any of the heirs, he may extend the time for payment of such tax or any part thereof not to exceed five (5) years, in case the estate is settled through the courts, or two (2) years in case the estate is settled extrajudicially. In such case, the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension, and the running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended in Section 203 of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended, shall be suspended for the period of any such extension.

In case the available cash of the estate is insufficient to pay the total estate tax due, payment by installment shall be allowed within two (2) years from the statutory date for its payment without civil penalty and interest upon approval by the concerned BIR Official.

Tax Rates and Basis of Tax

There shall be imposed a rate of six percent (6%) based on NET TAXABLE ESTATE determined as the time of death of the decedent and composed of all properties, real or personal, tangible or intangible less, allowable deductions.

Valuation of Estate

For resident alien and non-resident alien, it shall include the properties situated in the Philippines.

- As an additional information, properties located outside the Philippines, if any, of resident and non-resident alien decedents, although not taxable, shall still be presented in the return under the Schedule Section for information purposes and for purposes of computing the correct amount of allowable deductions.

This requirement should be dispensed with if the estate is not claiming any deduction. If there is an allegation of absence of property outside the Philippines, a certification to this effect should be secured from the nearest Philippine Consular Office.
